Preface for Meeting M2
The M2 meeting Vienna aims to <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1.) present and discuss the different approaches towards agro-ecology that will emerge from the inventory conducted in the different countries (O1) and make a comparative analysis (Responsibility by OEP) 2.) participate in organised field visits during the M2 meeting (indicated in the schedule below), designed to detect innovations and changes which agroecology implies. (Responsibility by BOKU) 3.) present and discuss the case studies each partner has to carry out (at least three in each country). The case studies must focus on examples of innovative agroecological approaches. The choice of case studies will be left to the partners and may address one or more of the following approaches: political, technical or educational. The case studies can be carried out either at the level of a farm or of a territory (municipality, Regional Park, state ...) Each case study has to deal with: i.) context; ii.) objectives; iii.) approach; iv.) method and tools and v.) results (Responsibility of ALL → moderation by BOKU) 4.) present the indicators to detect the innovations and changes in each of the suggested case studies as a basis for comparison (Responsibility of ALL → moderation by BOKU) 5.) agree on the indicators to detect the innovations and changes in each of the suggested case studies (Responsibility of ALL → moderation by BOKU) 6.) discuss organisational matters of the project (Responsibility by CEZ)
